BACKGROUND

The City has made a conditional offer of employment as the City's Police Chief to Mr. Ron Gibson. The offer is contingent on Ron's passing certain medical tests as well as confirmation of his appointment by the Council. As a result, I am requesting that the Council conditionally confirm Ron's appointment contingent on his passing the medical tests. The tests are scheduled for later this week.

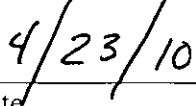

The City conducted a nationwide recruitment for this position. Forty-two applications were received and screened. A preliminary telephone interview was conducted with eight applicants. The top two were invited for on-site interviews in March. Three diverse panels interviewed the candidates. These panels were comprised of Redmond department directors, Police Department command staff, union representatives, a member of the Civil Service Commission, the Police Chief of Kirkland and me.

Throughout the interview process, Ron displayed the characteristics and traits that are required of a Director. His leadership and management skills were evident, along with excellent interpersonal skills. Ron was described by the panelists as honest, professional and personable. The process found Ron to be an excellent candidate and confirmed that he will be a valuable addition to the Police Department and our management team. Support for Ron was unanimous among panelists.

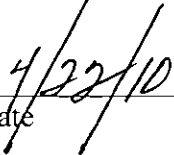

Ron brings substantial experience to this position which he has obtained through a long and varied career in law enforcement with the City of Colorado Springs. Ron has been active in the community in Colorado Springs and was a board member of a non-profit organization dedicated to protecting women and children against domestic violence. Ron holds a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Colorado State University, a Masters of Criminal Justice from the University of Colorado, and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and the Center for Creative Leadership.
